On October 25, 2005 AUSA Nicole Waid and Community Outreach Specialist Bob Nixon conducted training for property managers and owners on the issuance of barring notices. Many property managers attended this training session held at the 7th District. A barring notice is an excellent tool that can be used by property managers and owners to keep unwanted individuals from entering their property. An arrest for a barring notice cannot be made unless an agent or owner has signed the notice affirming that the person whose name appears on the notice is not wanted on the property. The Metropolitan Police Department cannot act as an agent or owner for the dwelling. That's why it's so important the property managers and owners are trained. Once the barred individual is spotted for the second time on the property, that person maybe arrested for unlawful entry. For more information on barring notices please feel free to contact AUSA Nicole Waid at 202-698-1456, Bob Nixon at 202-698-1452, the Community Prosecution Office at 202-514-6930, or e-mail dc.outreach@usdoj.gov.

THE COURT REPORT

Marquetta Jordan, 27, of the 5300 block of Chillum Place, NE, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 14, 2005, to six and one-half years in prison by the Honorable John Bayly, Jr. in D.C. Superior Court for running over her husband with a Sports Utility Vehicle (SUV). On June 23, 2005, Jordan pled guilty to voluntary manslaughter while armed (car). The District of Columbia Sentencing Guidelines called for a sentence between 7½ years to 15 years, but the Court departed below that sentence citing as mitigating factors the defendant's lack of a prior record and an altercation between her and the victim before the incident. (Case No. F-6004-05; PSA 702)

The government's evidence showed that on September 21, 2004, at approximately 4:27 p.m., members of the Metropolitan Police Department received a 911 call for assistance in the 2700 block of Jasper Road, SE. Upon their arrival, officers saw the body of Clayton Carter pinned underneath a black Ford Expedition and the defendant, Marquetta Jordan, kneeling on the ground beside him. The victim was transported to D.C. General and pronounced dead. The victim was then transported to the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner, where the ME's office determined that the victim died as a result of blunt impact trauma to his neck, torso and extremities and the manner of death to be homicide.

Both on the scene and as part of an investigation, witnesses were interviewed and stated that the defendant and the victim, who are husband and wife, were arguing in front of 2719 Jasper Road, SE. During an argument inside the apartment building, the victim placed his hands around the neck of the defendant after the defendant had slapped him in the face. Witnesses told police that the argument spilled outside the building and defendant went into the Expedition, got a saw and severely cut the victim's hand. The victim shouted, "You cut me!" and the defendant got back into the Expedition. The victim threw a plastic trashcan at the defendant while she was inside the Expedition. (Also inside the truck were the couple's three children ranging in ages between 11 and 5 years old who witnessed the entire incident.) The defendant began racing the engine while holding the brake. Witnesses describe the defendant as swerving the Expedition backwards several times in an attempt to hit her husband. When the victim was standing at the front of the Expedition, the defendant accelerated, hit the defendant and pushed him, at a 90° angle, into the raised concrete sidewalk. At no time did the victim have any weapons in his hand.

Members of MPD's Major Crash Unit were called to the scene. They took detailed measurements and calculations. They determined that there were intentional acceleration marks on the street from one side of the street to where the truck came to rest. A complete vehicle autopsy was conducted and it was determined that there were no structural or mechanical problems with the Expedition.

Jason Scott, 32, of the 1600 block of 29th Street, SE, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 21, 2005, in D.C. Superior Court before the Honorable Ann O'Regan Keary to 19 years in prison for voluntary manslaughter while armed and related firearms offenses. Scott was convicted of the charges by a Superior Court jury in December 2004. Scott, who was previously convicted of second degree murder while armed in West Virginia in 1994, had only been released for five months when he shot and killed Jerome Jenkins, of Alexandria, Virginia, in November 2001, in this second homicide (Case No. F-7272-01; PSA 702).

According to the government's evidence, during the evening of November 2, 2001, in the rear of 2517 West Street, SE, Washington, D.C., Jason Scott entered a residence with his cousin, Darryle McNeill. The two cousins proceeded to the rear of the address, where residents and guests were gathered. McNeill approached Jerome Jenkins's vehicle on the passenger side, and Scott approached the same vehicle on the driver's side. After a brief verbal confrontation with the front seat passenger, McNeill fired one round into the air from a semi-automatic pistol. Scott then took the gun from McNeill.

McNeill was then approached by a resident of the address, who engaged him in a conversation regarding the firing of the pistol. The conversation quickly turned into a physical altercation. Other residents joined the altercation. Scott approached the altercation and shot one resident in the foot. As residents and guests hurried toward the rear entrance of the address, Scott continued firing the pistol, shooting Jerome Jenkins in the back three times, causing his death. Scott and McNeill left the scene and traveled to Prince George's Community Hospital because Scott also suffered from a gunshot wound. At trial, the jury rejected the defense theory that Scott had acted in self-defense when he shot Mr. Jenkins. McNeill previously pled guilty to a firearm charge in connection with this incident.

D.C. Superior Court Judge John H. Bayly, Jr. sentenced a 36-year-old District man (whose identity is being withheld to protect the identity of the victims), of 13th Street, SE, Washington, D.C., to 30 years of incarceration for sexually abusing two of his nieces. On May 17, 2005, a D.C. Superior Court jury found the defendant guilty of two counts of first-degree child sexual abuse with aggravating factors. The defendant was a convicted sex offender from Pennsylvania.

The government's evidence at trial showed that between October 1998 and July 2002, the defendant repeatedly sexually abused his nieces while their mothers were at work. One of the girls was four years old and the other was between six and eight when the abuse occurred. The Metropolitan Police Department became aware of the incidents when the younger victim, now 10, disclosed the abuse to police in another jurisdiction.

Damon L. White, 23, formerly of Oxon Hill, Maryland, was sentenced on October 7, 2005, before Superior Court Judge Wendell P. Gardner, Jr., to 17 years of incarceration for a car jacking and a series of robberies he committed in 2004 in Southeast Washington, D.C. The defendant pled guilty in June 2005 to one count of armed car jacking and five counts of robbery in connection with the crime spree (Case No. F-4948-05; PSA 706).

According to the government's evidence, the first incident occurred on January 14, 2004, in the 600 block of Galveston Street, SE. The defendant robbed a woman of her car while armed with a pistol. He then began to drive away while her two sons were trapped in the back seat of the vehicle. Fortunately, the young boys escaped before the defendant had driven very far. The second incident occurred on March 22, 2004, in 4000 block of 7th Street, SE. This time the defendant robbed a woman of her purse at gunpoint. Just four days later, on March 26, 2004, the defendant, again armed with a pistol, robbed another woman of her car in the 3000 block of 8th Street, SE. The defendant carjacked three other woman in the same area on May 15, 2004, May 18, 2004, and June 16, 2004. In each of these offenses, the defendant was armed with a firearm. He told each of the victims that they had a flat tire to lure them out of their cars before aiming his gun at them.

Karlepa Wilkey, 27, of the 2600 block of Birney Place, SE, and Larry Gause, 32, of the 800 block of Yuma Street, SE, were convicted by a Superior Court jury of numerous charges, including armed robbery of a senior citizen and possession of a firearm during a crime of violence, related to their using a sawed-off shotgun to rob a senior citizen at the ATM outside the PNC Bank in the 4100 block of South Capitol Street, SE, on July 1, 2005. Both men face over 70 years in prison when sentenced on December 19, 2005, before the Honorable Hiram E. Puig-Lugo (Case Nos. F-3694-05 and F-3701-05; PSA 706).

According to the government's evidence presented at trial, on July 1, 2005, at 7:15 a.m., the senior citizen withdrew $20 from the ATM. After the senior citizen completed his transaction, the defendants immediately approached him from behind. Wilkey shoved the sawed-off shotgun into the senior citizen's ribs and snatched the money out of the senior citizen's hand. Gause then knocked the senior citizen's wallet, which contained additional currency and credit cards, to the ground. The men retrieved the additional property and fled the area. The entire robbery was captured on the bank's surveillance cameras.

Near the time of the robbery, a group of officers were working a robbery detail in the area. Less than 45 minutes after the robbery, the officers found the defendants hiding under bushes in a creek bed less than a mile away. Officers recovered the sawed-off shotgun which was loaded with four rounds of ammunition, the senior citizen's stolen property, and clothing that was depicted in the bank's surveillance video in the same area officers apprehended the defendants. The senior citizen positively identified the men even though they had attempted to change their clothing.

Robert Young, 49, formerly of the 1700 block of Benning Road, NE, Washington, D.C., pled guilty on October 4, 2005, in D.C. Superior Court to charges of Armed Robbery, Kidnapping, and Assault on a Police Officer. The defendant is scheduled to be sentenced on December 6, 2005, before D.C. Superior Court Judge Wendell P. Gardner, Jr. He faces up to 65 years in prison. (Case No. F-1867-05 PSA 703)

According to the government's evidence, the defendant committed a series of violent crimes beginning on February 20, 2005, when he assaulted a member of the United States Secret Service, Uniformed Division. That day, a uniformed police officer conducted a traffic stop on the defendant's vehicle, a dark red station wagon, in the 600 block of 13th Street, NW. During the stop, the defendant ignored the officer's order to shut off his engine and began driving away. When the officer reached into the vehicle in an effort to stop the defendant, his arm became caught inside the car. The defendant dragged the officer for approximately 30 yards, ignoring several orders to stop. The officer eventually freed himself and fell to the ground as the defendant drove off.

A month later, on March 20, 2005, the defendant entered a convenience store at 522 K Street, NE. After a brief conversation with the store clerk, the defendant pulled out a semi-automatic pistol, pointed it at the store clerk, and demanded money. The clerk handed some money to the defendant. Apparently dissatisfied, the defendant demanded more money from the clerk. As the clerk turned back to the cash register, the defendant shot him in his lower back from close range. The defendant then took the money and fled in a dark red station wagon.

Police officers located the defendant's station wagon several blocks away from the convenience store, and soon he was identified in the shooting. The next day, March 21, 2005, the defendant kidnapped his ex-girlfriend and her friend at gunpoint outside an apartment in the 2600 block of Stanton Road, SE, and held them against will. The defendant bound the friend's wrists and ankles with tape, and taped her head in an effort to cover her mouth. He kidnapped the friend as punishment because he believed she had interfered with his relationship with his ex-girlfriend.

The defendant then fled Washington, D.C., for several days as members of law enforcement pursued him. However, he was apprehended on April 1, 2005, inside an apartment in SE, Washington, D.C. During the apprehension, police officers recovered a nine-millimeter semi-automatic pistol that ballistics testing confirmed to be the same pistol used during the convenience store shooting.

DEFENDANTS WHO WERE CONVICTED IN FIREARMS CASES

Under the Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN) initiative, 24 persons were convicted of firearms offenses in October 2005. PSN is a partnership between local and federal agencies to reduce gun violence in the District of Columbia. The following is a list of offenses that occurred in this district:

DISTRICT COURT CASES

Anthony M. Stewart, 34, of Suitland, Maryland, was sentenced on September 26, 2005, to 18 months in prison by United States District Judge Paul L. Friedman on Stewart's prior guilty plea to aiding and abetting an honest services wire fraud offense. The charge relates to Stewart providing fraudulent documents to his parole officer and others, which falsely represented his employment with the Department of Agriculture. Stewart's sister, Theresa Stewart Freeman, was employed with the United States Department of Agriculture at the time.

According to the government's evidence presented at the plea hearing and agreed to by Stewart, a part of Ms. Freeman's employment duties was to verify the employment of personnel at the Department of Agriculture in response to inquiries from outside the Department. At all relevant times, Stewart was not employed. He was, however, on parole for a conviction in Superior Court in Washington, D.C., and a condition of his parole was that he maintain employment. If he failed to do so, his parole potentially could be revoked and he could be incarcerated for not complying with his terms of parole.

In May of 2003, Stewart stopped reporting to his parole officer. The parole officer then contacted Ms. Freeman, as Stewart's purported supervisor, in an attempt to locate him. At that time, Ms. Freeman fraudulently represented to the parole officer that Stewart was on leave without pay from the Department.

This fraud scheme came to light on June 26, 2003, when Metropolitan Police Department detectives were trying to locate Stewart to arrest him on a warrant in an unrelated matter. In the process of trying to locate Stewart, the police determined that he had submitted pay stubs to his parole officer showing that he was working at the Department of Agriculture. When the police contacted the Department of Agriculture about these pay stubs, they found that the pay stubs were fraudulent.

Stewart's sister, Ms. Freeman, previously pled guilty to a honest services wire fraud charge in this matter and was sentenced by Judge Friedman to three years of probation, which included a requirement that she perform 100 hours of community service. Ms. Freeman resigned from her employment with the Department of Agriculture in January of 2004.

Wyatt Wood, 42, of the 1200 block of Florida Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 17, 2005, in U.S. District Court by Chief Judge Thomas F. Hogan to a term of 188 months in prison following his earlier guilty plea to federal drug trafficking charges. On April 19, 2005, Wood pled guilty to Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute 50 grams or more of Methamphetamine, also known as “Ice,” Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute Five Kilograms or More of Cocaine, and Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute a detectable amount of 3,4-Methylenedioxy Methamphetamine, also known as “Ecstasy.”

The evidence proffered by the government at the sentencing hearing established that, between January 1999 and November 22, 2004 (the date of Wood’s arrest), Woods utilized several sources to supply him with large quantities of Ice, cocaine, Ecstasy and other designer drugs. Additionally, Wood employed a number of individuals to distribute the designer drugs as well. Wood was held responsible for the distribution of 60 kilograms of Ice, 5.5 kilograms of cocaine, and 4 kilograms of Ecstasy. He additionally possessed with the intent to distribute large quantities of Ketamine, Marijuana, Clonazepam, d-Pseudoephedrine hydrochloride and Gamma Butyrolactone, (GBL) and Gamma Hydroxybutyrate (GHB).

Wood’s sentencing represents the culmination of a four-year joint effort by a task force which resulted in the successful prosecution of more than 30 defendants to whom Wood supplied designer drugs. Moreover, this task force had seized more than one million dollars in assets from Wood. The joint investigation, initially designated as “Operation Tina Town,” was a joint DEA, MPD and Arlington County effort that became part of a larger national initiative lead by the DEA, and was referred to as “Operation Wildfire.” Operation Wildfire was a nationally coordinated law enforcement initiative designed to (1) target all levels of the methamphetamine manufacturing and distribution chain in the United States and (2) continue the fight against the spread of methamphetamine. The unprecedented law enforcement effort involved over 200 U.S. cities and resulted in the arrest of 427 individuals.

Antonio C. Bras, 62, of Olney, Maryland, was sentenced on October 20, 2005, in U.S. District Court before the Honorable Colleen Kollar Kotelly to a 37-month term of imprisonment for conspiring to commit bribery and federal highway fraud in connection with Bras’s role in distributing cash bribes to District of Columbia Department of Public Works officials in exchange for the DPW officials agreeing to accept inflated job tickets for asphalt materials that were never provided to the District. U.S. District Judge Kollar Kotelly also fined BRAS $7,500. Bras entered his guilty plea in 2003 following the government’s presentation of evidence at trial before a federal jury. This investigation – started in 1997 and known as “Operation Hotmix” – resulted in the criminal conviction of three construction companies and twelve individuals including nine District of Columbia DPW employees.

Fort Myer Construction Corporation (“FMCC”) was a Virginia corporation, which engaged in road construction projects in Washington and elsewhere. FMCC entered into contracts and subcontracts with other prime contractors with the District of Columbia Department of Public Works (“DPW”) and others to repair and resurface roads. Pursuant to these contracts and subcontracts, FMCC agreed to charge DPW and others for labor and material actually used in the performance of its contracts. Antonio C. Bras was employed by defendant FMCC as an asphalt superintendent and was a management official of FMCC. FMCC's Asphalt Division was responsible for, among other things, oversight of FMCC's obligation to deliver the proper amounts of asphalt to its crews at DPW job sites. (FMCC entered a separate guilty plea in March 2003, before Judge Kotelly to conspiracy to bribe DPW officials. FMCC was fined $300,000, ordered to pay $300,000 in restitution, and entered into a separate $300,000 civil settlement.)

Wyatt Wood, 42, of the 1200 block of Florida Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 17, 2005, in U.S. District Court by Chief Judge Thomas F. Hogan to a term of 188 months in prison following his earlier guilty plea to federal drug trafficking charges. On April 19, 2005, Wood pled guilty to Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute 50 grams or more of Methamphetamine, also known as "Ice," Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute Five Kilograms or More of Cocaine, and Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute a detectable amount of 3,4-Methylenedioxy Methamphetamine, also known as "Ecstasy."

The evidence proffered by the government at the sentencing hearing established that, between January 1999 and November 22, 2004 (the date of Wood's arrest), Woods utilized several sources to supply him with large quantities of Ice, cocaine, Ecstasy and other designer drugs. Additionally, Wood employed a number of individuals to distribute the designer drugs as well. Wood was held responsible for the distribution of 60 kilograms of Ice, 5.5 kilograms of cocaine, and 4 kilograms of Ecstasy. He additionally possessed with the intent to distribute large quantities of Ketamine, Marijuana, Clonazepam, d-Pseudoephedrine hydrochloride and Gamma Butyrolactone, (GBL) and Gamma Hydroxybutyrate (GHB).

David Johnson, 35, of the 4900 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, a former employee of the D.C. Public School's Transportation Division, pled guilty on October 12, 2005, in U.S. District Court to operating a bribery scheme with a D.C. government clerk. In pleading guilty, Johnson acknowledged that he paid money to Tonette Cooks, a teller formerly employed by the D.C. Office of Finance and Treasury ("OFT") and working for the D.C. Bureau of Traffic Adjudication, in exchange for Cooks falsely recording that various automobile tickets and fines had been paid in full. Cooks, 30, formerly of the 4800 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, pled guilty to bribery on October 21, 2003. Both Cooks and Johnson are now pending sentencing before United States District Judge Gladys Kessler.

As part of his plea, Johnson admitted that he operated as a "middleman," collecting numerous "customers" and their bribe money, and providing Cooks with the tickets or fines to be fixed and delivering to her a portion of the bribe money. A second "middleman" with whom Cooks worked, Sherry McKnight, 41, formerly of the 3000 block of Stanton Road, SE, pled guilty on October 17, 2003, to participating with Cooks in the bribery scheme. On April 28, 2004, McKnight was sentenced to 46 months of incarceration. Johnson admitted that his actions resulted in a loss amount of over $30,000.

Bruce A. Schiffer, 34, of Washington, D.C., pled guilty on October 14, 2005, in Federal District Court to one count each of using his computer to advertise, transport, receive and possess child pornography. The sentencing date will be February 9, 2006, before the Honorable Paul L. Friedman.

During the plea hearing, Schiffer admitted to charges contained in an indictment handed down on June 9, 2005. The indictment alleged that Schiffer advertised, transported, received and possessed the child pornography that forms the basis for the charges. By operating his personal computer as a file server, Schiffer allowed selected files to be downloaded and uploaded by the public from and to his computer respectively. He also advertised on specified Internet relay chat (IRC) channels a willingness to receive or distribute files. Schiffer advertised his file server on the "100%preteenboysexcpics" IRC channel, making available to the public a collection of approximately 11,000 image and movie files of child pornography and erotic depictions of children over the course of about five months beginning on or about Sept. 1, 2004 and continuing until on or about Jan.14, 2005. Among the items seized from Schiffer's bedroom pursuant to a search warrant, were several computers; a large quantity of storage media, including videotapes, CDs, DVDs and floppy disks, a clown suit; and two boxes of catalogued correspondence between Schiffer and roughly 160 prison inmates, the vast majority of whom had either sexually assaulted or murdered children.
